Getting our service right for you is vital, whether you are a long-standing client or have just recycled your first radioactive material.

Your feedback is used! We invite every Client to provide objective feedback after their survey or collection and the results form part of a management analysis supported by ISO 9001:2000. Our objective is to listen and improve our service to clients.

Please click here to download our Customer Satisfaction Form and, once complete, e-mail or fax it back to us. If you have 'form phobia' and would prefer to give your feedback verbally, then please drop us an email and we will give you a call.

If you have any media enquiries, please ring 07764 624802.
